

Thinking about an E/MBA or other graduate business degree?

Advance Your Career in D.C. - and Beyond the Beltway

Explore and learn more about some of the best E/MBA and other graduate business programs, inside and outside D.C., designed for professionals in government and public policy, government relations and public affairs.

Info Sessions on/at:

TUE., JUNE 16, 5:30 PM · TWC

WED., JUNE 17, 3:00 PM · CHC

The Washington Campus is a nonpartisan, non-profit 501(c)(3) higher education consortium.

Why Attend?

Whether you're looking to lead in the public sector, manage public affairs and government relations, move into policy leadership, or pivot into the private sector (corporate, consulting, association, non-profit) — finding the right graduate business program can help open the door. Join us to explore your options firsthand.

Explore Programs

Executive MBA, MBA, MS/MA, and dual-degree options optimal for D.C. professionals

Meet Admissions Staff

Connect directly with program representatives from top schools

Find Your Fit

Online, hybrid, and in-person formats to match your schedule

Who Should Attend

Designed for those working in or with:

- Federal Government, Congress, Capitol Hill
- Public Affairs & Government Relations
- Public Policy & Think Tanks
- Nonprofit & Advocacy Organizations
- Healthcare, Finance & Regulatory Affairs

E/MBA Programs for D.C. Professionals

From executive to full-time formats, find an MBA, MS/MA, or dual-degree built for your career stage and goals.

Executive MBA

Designed for senior professionals — weekend, evening, and online/hybrid formats that fit demanding schedules.

Working Professional MBA

Part-time and flexible programs that let you earn your degree without leaving your job.

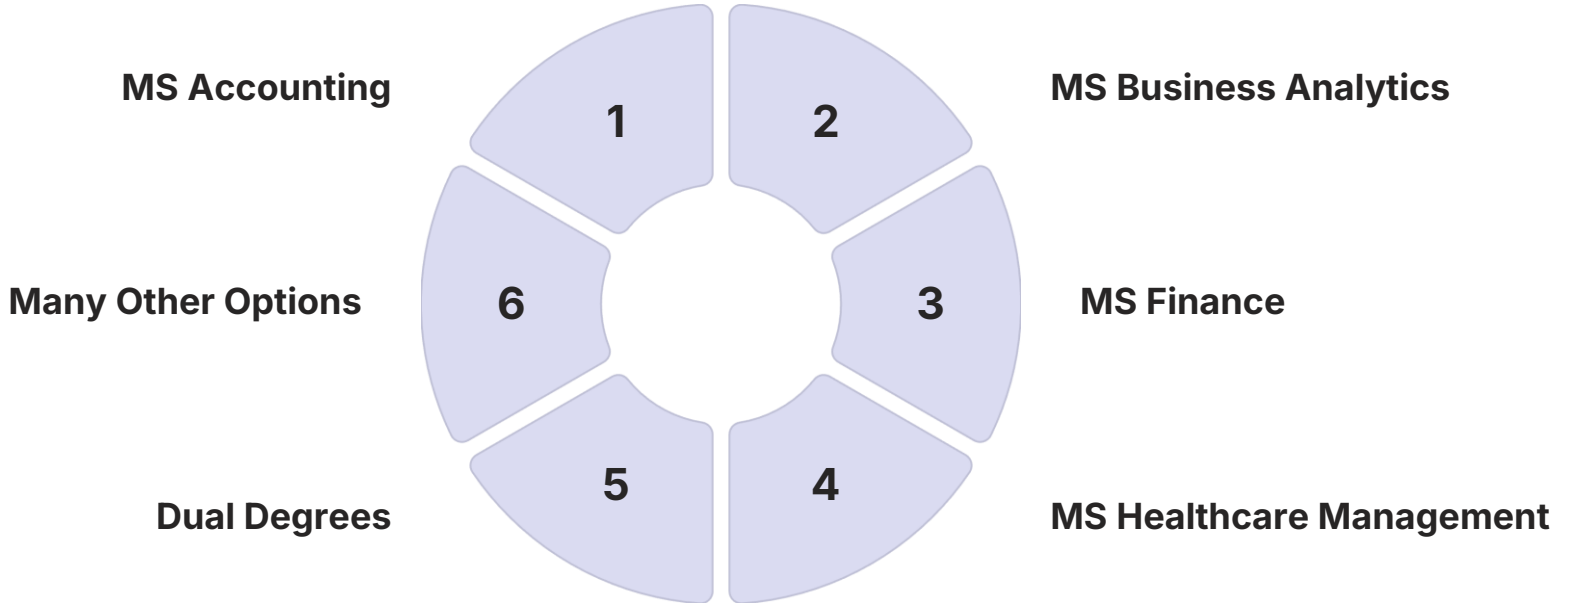

Full-Time MBA

Immersive one+ and two-year programs offering internships, networking, and career transformation.

Beyond the E/MBA: Other Graduate Options

Graduate business education goes far beyond the MBA. Explore specialized masters programs aligned with D.C.'s key industries and with the larger public and private sectors, nationwide and globally.

Dual-Degree Programs

Combine business expertise with policy, law, public administration or public health, and more — with options to finish at an accelerated pace.

MBA + MPP

Business + Public Policy

MBA + MPA or MHA

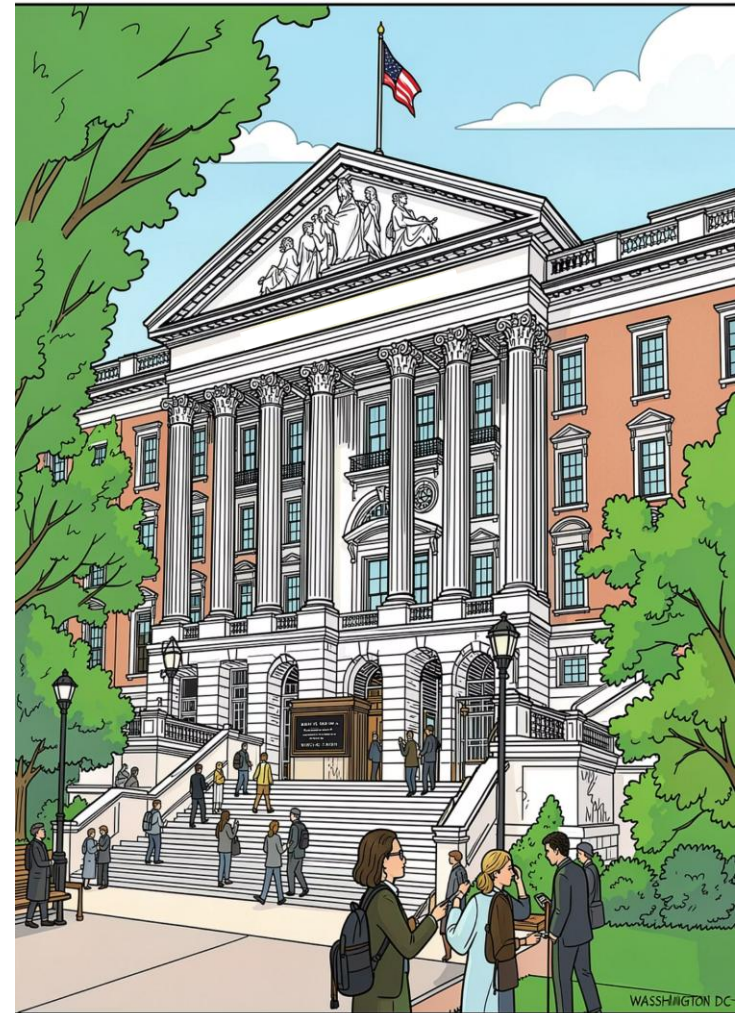

Business + Public Administration or Health Administration

MBA + JD

Business + Law

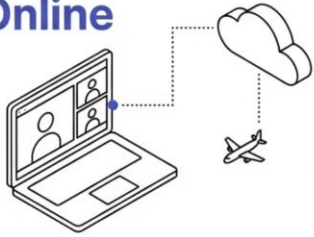

And More

MBA + MS, MBA + MA, and custom combinations

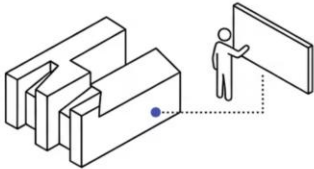

Program Formats That Work for You

Online

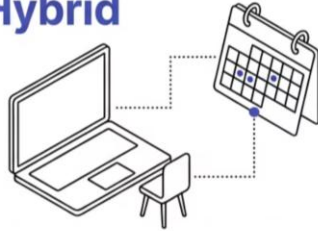

Fully remote. Maximum flexibility. Ideal for travel-heavy schedules.

In-Person

On-campus immersion. Networking-rich. Traditional classroom experience.

Hybrid

Mix of in-person and online sessions. A balanced approach.

Flexibility Is Built In

Whether you travel frequently, manage a demanding workload, or prefer face-to-face learning, there's a format designed for your life and work.

- One-plus and two-year full-time and flex options
- Evening and weekend class options
- Accelerated and part-time tracks
- Remote and hybrid learning flexibility

Session Details

Tuesday, June 16, 2026

5:30 PM – 7:00 PM

The Washington Campus

1150 18th St NW, Washington, DC 20036

Wednesday, June 17, 2026

3:00 PM – 5:00 PM

Capitol Hill Club

Across from Capitol South Metro Exit

Both sessions are free and open to registered participants. Light refreshments will be provided. Please register for attendance and for more information at info@washcampus.edu

Your Next Chapter Starts Here

Graduate business education can accelerate your career impact in government and government relations, public affairs and policy, and in the larger public and private sectors – in D.C. and beyond!

 Tue., June 16

5:30 PM · The Washington Campus

 Wed., June 17

3:00 PM · Capitol Hill Club

 Washington, D.C.

Two convenient locations

*TWC's core partner schools
Include...*

INDIANA UNIVERSITY

Berkeley
UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA

Ucla

RICE

EMORY
UNIVERSITY

